

THE 1969 COMICART CONVENTION

PROGRESS REPORT

A considerable amount of planning has gone into this year's convention, and we hope that this Progress Report shows it. Naturally, the planning will continue right up to the Convention itself -- we want to make it the best convention that's possible. But here's what we've come up with so far. First, a tentative program ...

SUNDAY, July 6th

- 7:00 pm Dealers dismantled and out

All events will take place in the Sky Top room. Dealers and exhibitions will be in the Penn Top room. It should be emphasized that the above program is tentative! For example, something may well be scheduled on Friday morning. A complete and detailed program will be available at the convention, of course.

At the time of this writing, formal invitations have not yet been extended to professionals in the comics field. However, we have heard from the following pros, who plan to be there: Neal Adams, Dick Giordano, Harvey Kurtzman, Gray Morrow, Jim Steranko, Vin Sullivan, Roy Thomas, Angelo Torres, and Al Williamson.

As for "The Comics Underground" panel, we expect a full compliment of New York underground artists, including Vaughn Bodé, Kim and Simon Deitch, Bob Stewart, Trina Robbins, and Spain Rodríguez.

SPECIAL LUNCHEON

As we have previously announced, Harvey Kurtzman, creator of Two-Fisted Tales, Mad, "Annie Fanny," and other trend-setting cultural phenomena too numerous to mention, will be Guest of Honor at the Banquet Luncheon. The Luncheon promises to be one of the most worthwhile events of the Convention; ask someone who attended last year how he enjoyed it.

The Luncheon tickets are $5.75 each, and are available now. The hotel requests that we sell all Luncheon tickets before Friday One PM, July 4th, so we ask that you buy yours now, and not try to wait until the last moment.

ART SHOW

We're pleased to be able to announce that the Exhibition Area will feature special exhibits of unpublished material by Gray Morrow, Jim Steranko and John Fantucchio.

AN AMATEUR ART EXHIBIT will also be featured. If you are interested in having your work on display, please inform Phil Seuling as soon as possible. There is no entrance fee, but entries are limited to two pieces per person. Naturally, we reserve the right to choose those items which will be exhibited, based on availability of space and suitability.

Professionals will judge the Amateur Art Exhibit, and Awards will be given on the last day of the convention.

FOR COLLECTORS

The Dealers Room will again occupy the largest portion of the Penn Top room, and will be open at all times throughout the convention. The Dealers Tables are now sold out!

The list of dealers who have reserved tables includes: Able-Man Books; Ed Aprill, Jr.; Alan Barbour; Robert Bell; Joel Frieman; Rich Hauser; H. Keller; Henry Kier; Dale Manesis; Passaic Books; Phil Seuling; Bill Thailing; Donald Vernon; Jerry Weist; and Witzend.

FILM PROGRAM

A film program will be held on Friday evening. Films will again be selected and presented by Chris Steinbrunner, a man eminently qualified for the job.

On the program will be a short film on comic artists and collectors Down Under, made for Australian TV. This film, being lent to the Convention by prominent Australian fan John Ryan, was promised for last year's Convention, but unfortunately could not be shown at that time. Better late than never, we say.

A special feature on the program will be Captain Celluloid versus the Film Pirates, complete in four chapters, by serial buffs Lou McMahon and Alan Barbour. Serials and comic oriented films of a more traditional nature will also be shown, not to mention other surprises.

COSTUME EVENT

SATURDAY EVENING, July 5th, there will be a Costume Event at 8:30 PM in the Skytop Ballroom. The event will be judged by guest professionals and there will be prizes for the first, second and third best costume. Every contestant will receive, as a souvenir of the event, a color photo of himself in costume.

RULES: 1. Costumes representing comic book, comic strip, or animated cartoon characters are eligible.

2. No professionally made costumes, please.

3. Costumes may be exhibited singly, or in groups (for example, several people may wish to come as the Marvel Family, or the Fantastic Four). However, any group wishing to present a rehearsed routine must consult the Costume Chairwoman before the event begins.

Last year's event brought out Captain Marvel, Jr., the Crimson Avenger, Lady Dorma, Iron Man, Blue Beetle, the Wizard, Barbarella, and others. Anyone who can't shout "Shazam!" or emerge from a phone booth fully costumed can write to the Costume Chairwoman for help, advice, instructions, and even patterns if possible. Your secret identity will not be revealed to the world at large until the night of the Costume Event. Get yourself busy, or get your mother, sister, or girlfriend busy on a costume now!

The Costume Chairwoman is Carole Seuling, 2883 West 12th Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. 11224. Her phone is (212)-449-4181.
